A MAYOR IN DIFFICULTY—THE CHIEF MAGISTRATE OF HUDSON CITY AND TWO OTHERS CHARGED WITH CONSPIRACY TO DEFRAUD—THE EVIDENCE.

Benjamin F. Sawyer, Mayor of Hudson City, Samuel Ropes and Joseph J. Bowman were arraigned yesterday at the Jefferson Market Police Court, charged with a conspiracy to obtain a large sum of money in bonds of the North Carolina Railroad by misrepresentation and fraud. The charge was supported by an affidavit made Dec. 20 by Cornelius W. Campbell, No. 406 West Forty-seventh-street, broker who alleged that on the 3d of Oct. Samuel Ropes, accompanied by B. F. Sawyer, called at his office, No. 60 Broad street, and represented that the deponent could realize from $4,000 to $5,000 commission by allowing them to use his name to effect a loan of $30 000 upon $115,000 North Carolina Railroad bonds. A few days subsequently Ropes called again with a paper which he said was drawn up by Mr. Sawyer; it was only a form, he said, and requested deponent to sign it. He accordingly did so without reading its contents; he also signed another paper brought him by Ropes. Since then he has been informed that the papers were a stipulation to hold in trust $115,000 worth of North Carolina Railroad bonds, and to return the same and not to dispose of them; that the second paper was an order for the delivery of the bonds to a person named A. A. Shepherd; that Benjamin F. Sawyer and Samuel Ropes and J. J. Bowman conspired together to cheat and defraud the holders and owners of said bonds by virtue of the order so signed, and did sell the same and convert the proceedings of such sale to their own use, except a small portion which they were compelled to pay one Colonel Littlefield, the former holder thereof; that for the purpose of inducing the holders of the bonds to place the same in trust in deponent's hands, Sawyer, Ropes and Bowman represented deponent to be a man of large means and having large sums of money, all of which statements are false, fraudulent and untrue.

Mr. Campbell was sworn and gave evidence in corroboration of the affidavit.

For the defence Mr. J. J. Bowman was examined, and in reply to Mr. Sawyer, said: I never had any dealings with Mr. Campbell; I was requested by a Mr. Morgan, a broker, to obtain a loan of $30,000 on North Carolina Railroad Securities, and upon making inquiries in relation to it, I ascertained from Mr. Sawyer that Mr. Campbell would make it; I asked Mr. Sawyer who Mr. Campbell was and he said he learned he was ex-Alderman Campbell, that he had seen the references, was responsible and on the strength of that I saw Mr. Morgan and took him to Mr. Sawyer's office; Mr. Morgan had a conversation with Mr. Sawyer in my presence, and after having made inquiries as to the solvency of Mr. Campbell he considered he was a responsible party, he asked whether Mr. Campbell would sign that contract and Mr. Sawyer replied that he would; he also took it to Mr. Littlefield, who approved of it, and it was then taken to Mr. Campbell; some time afterwards Mr. Morgan came to me and said the loan was satisfactory and handed me a check for $750 commission, signed by Mr. Littlefield; Mr. Morgan indorsed the check and I then gave it to Mr. Sawyer; of that sum $200 were given to Mr. Ropes to take to Mr. Campbell, $325 to Mr. Sawyer, part to Mr. Morgan and the remainder I kept myself; Mr. Sawyer acted in the capacity of attorney for myself and Mr. Ropes in the transaction and had no other interest in it; I had a conversation with Campbell on this matter and he said that if he had received the $500 he was promised he would not have instituted this prosecution.

Cross-examined by Mr. Morgan—I received $125 of the $750 commission; the check was drawn by Mr. Morgan and endorsed by him; Mr. Sawyer never transferred any other checks to me as the proceeds of this transaction; I am a broker and I make and sell loans; I was arrested on this charge at the instigation of Mr. Ropes, but was immediately released.

To Mr. Sawyer—I signed a receipt to Mr. Sawyer for money he collected from Mr. Ropes, and I received $5,000; did not lend any portion of it to Mr. Sawyer.

Mr. Sawyer was placed on the stand, and testified that he did not offer Mr. Campbell $25 to withdraw the prosecution, but said that he would rather give $25 than remain away from his business that day.

The Judge postponed his decision until 3 o'clock to day.

Previous to the hearing of the case a disturbance took place between the parties interested in it, in an anteroom adjoining the Court, which came near producing unpleasant consequences. It appears that a discussion arose on the circumstances of the complaint, which grew so warm that Mr. Morgan told Mr. Sawyer, Jr., that he was a liar. The latter retorted and immediately Mr. Morgan struck him in the face with his fist. A general melee would undoubtedly have taken place had not the Police officers on duty in Court instantly separated. They were brought before Justice Ledwith, and the facts stated, but Mr. Sawyer was induced to withdraw the complaint for assault he intended to have made. The Judge strongly condemned the conduct of Mr. Morgan, and remarked that had the silence taken place in the courtroom he would have committed him for contempt.—N. Y. Daily Times Jan. 6.

"A very pretty girl of eighteen," says the Journal de Rouen, "applied to the Central Commissary of Police at Lille, a few days back, for leave to visit Traupmann in his prison. 'What have you got to say to him?' asked the functionary. 'Sir, the matter is very simple,' she replied; 'he is alone and requires care and amusement. If I went and stayed with him for the time he still has to live, he could leave me the 4,000f. which he still possesses.' The astounded magistrate endeavored to make the young woman understand the impropriety and immortality of her suggestion, but she did not see the case in that light, and simply remarked, "But, sir, his money will be lost, and he is so dull alone!"

SECRETS OF HEALTH. First, keep warm; second, eat regularly and slowly; third, maintain regular bodily habits; fourth, take early and very light suppers; fifth, keep a clean skin; sixth, get plenty of sleep at night; seventh, keep cheerful and respectable company; eighth, keep out of debt; ninth, don't set your mind on things you don't need; tenth, mind your own business; eleventh, don't set yourself up to be a sharper of any kind; twelfth, subdue uriosity; thirteenth, avoid drugs.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

DISCONTENT.

We determined last week, when we read the Charlotte Democrat's remarks upon our speech, at Charlotte, to treat it with the silence it merited. We tell Mr. Yates, once for all, we have neither time, space or inclination for the indulgence of personalities, to which he invited us last week. As to his leaving the Court House while we were speaking, we assure him his presence did not inspire, nor his absence depress us.

We think Mr. Yates is not orator sufficient to lay down rules of conduct for public speakers. He thinks we should denounce certain Conservatives, that may be so; we have spared certain Radicals and Conservatives, too, that may have deserved denunciation. It is easy for Mr. Yates to supply our deficiencies in this respect, by denouncing through his paper, such persons as may deserve it. We don't care to indulge in denunciation; we prefer to tell the truth on carpet-bag swindlers and oppressors of the people, and leave it for the people themselves, to supply the indignation and denunciation.

Mr. Yates says our "speeches do no good." We shall not controvert that point with him. Mr. Whiteside, the newly elected Senator, writes very differently to a member of the Legislature.

Judge Logan, Pike, and Yates, all agree about our speeches. At Hatherford, the Judge heard us; he said our speech would make 500 votes for his son Robert, who was the Radical candidate. The county had voted over 1200 Republican majority for the Judge, when he was a candidate.—After our long speech of three hours, to a large assembly of the people, according to the Judge's estimate of the speech, his son Robert should have beaten Captain Whiteside 1700 votes in that county, alone; yet, Whiteside beat Robert three votes in the county, and 500 in the district. The result of the election may cause the Judge to change his opinion of our speech.—

We hope the result of the election in that district will help Mr. Yates, Gen. Barringer, and many others, who have acted as if they doubted which side would ultimately win the victory, to come to some definite conclusion. We suggest to Mr. Yates that it would be better for us both, better for our cause and our country, that we open our batteries upon Holden and his vile, corrupt, administration. When we have beat down the oppressors of the people, we can then open on each other.

SPECIAL TAX BONDS.—Mr. Robbins introduced a series of resolution into the Senate on yesterday, to test the constitutionality of the new special tax bonds.—The substance of the preamble and resolutions is about this: The preamble rehearses the constitutional provision that no appropriation bill shall be passed without at the same time, making provision by special tax, for the payment of the interest on it.—It declares that the special tax, laid for the payment of interest on the new appropriations, is inadequate, and therefore the Constitution was not complied with in making them. The resolutions, therefore, forbid the Treasurer to pay more interest on the special tax bonds until the Supreme Court, to whom the resolutions refer the question of constitutionality, shall settle that question. We think the ground in the preamble and resolutions well taken, and the tax payers of the State will wait with anxiety the result of the matter.

SUPREME COURT.

Monday, January 17th.—Court assembled at the usual hour—all the Justices being present on the Bench.

Hon. William H. Battle announced the death of Ex-Chief Justice Ruffin, and upon motion of Hon. Samuel F. Phillips, the Court adjourned until to-morrow at 10, A. M.

A meeting of the Bench and Bar was held in the Supreme Court rooms at 3 o'clock, on Monday evening, as a tribute of respect to the memory of the late ex-Chief Justice Ruffin.

The proceedings will be published in to-morrow's issue.

THE CIVIL RIGHTS ACT IN SOUTH CAROLINA.—In Charleston, S. C., last week, a colored man, for whom a ticket had been bought by a white man, applied for admission to the dress circle of the Academy of Music and was refused admittance by John T. Ford, of Baltimore, the manager and lessee. Another colored man applied for a ticket for the reserved seats, and was refused by order of the lessee. Subsequently warrants were issued upon the affidavits of the two colored men, and Mr. Ford was arrested for violating the State law to carry out the provisions of the civil rights act.—He gave bonds to appear at the next term of the Court of General Sessions.

CONFEDERATE MONEY AT PAR.—One night last week a colored gentleman went into a grocery store on East Market, and called for a dollar's worth of flour. The clerk weighed it out and put it in his "poke" and the darkey, throwing a bill on the counter, walked off. On opening the bill. it proved to be $1 in Confederate money, but Sambo was non come at-ible.—Greensboro Patriot

Captain John Berry.

It is seldom that any community is called upon to mourn the loss of so useful a citizen as Captain Berry. A friend who had long known him has furnished an obituary notice which appears in another column, and makes it unnecessary for us to say more than that our acquaintance with him runs back to our earliest recollections. We have never known a man of more sterling qualities, both of head and heart; honesty, truth and industry were his characteristics.

His life and character will serve as a model for those who will make it their study. When grown to man's estate he was both ignorant and poor. By his industry he made himself rich. By his application, he made himself intelligent and learned. In his riches he forgot not the poor. His equals respected him for his force of character, and mind. But the best portion of his life, was his little nameless unrecorded acts of kindness and love.—For his acts of kindness charity and love, go ask the unfortunate the humble and the lowly, who stood mourners at his grave.—We need not say to those to whom he was dearest, that they have our sympathy in their grief and distress.

Died

In Hillsborough, on Saturday 15th January, 1870, Hon. Thomas Ruffin, Sr., in the 83rd year of his age.

Judge Ruffin was a native of Virginia, and was born on the 17th November 1787. He graduated at Princeton in 1805, and read Law with Judge May, in Petersburg, Va., in whose office as Law student, was Gen. Winfield Scott. He read the statute Laws of North Carolina in the office of Judge Murphy, of Orange, where he began the practice of law.

His first appearance in public life was as borough member in the House of Commons, from Hillsboro', in 1813. He was again returned in 1815 and 1816. In the latter year he was elected Judge of the Superior Courts, which position he resigned in 1818. He was appointed to the same position in 1823, and again resigned in 1828. In 1829 he was elected to the Supreme Court Bench, which position he filled usefully to the State and honorably to himself, until 1854. He was re elected Judge of the Supreme Court in 1858, and again resigned in 1859.

He was for many years a Trustee of the University at Chapel Hill, educated his sons there, and took a deep interest in the success and welfare of that once renowned institution.

He has left a large family of children, grand children, and great grand children, to mourn their loss.

He was a zealous member of the Episcopal Church, but as he knew there was no cure for difference of opinion in matters of religion, his wisdom, piety, and toleration kept him aloof from religious controversy. If called upon to defend the tenets of his Church, he did it with forcible argument and christian gentleness.

But it is as a jurist and Chief Justice of North Carolina, that his fame has gone abroad in the land, across the great waters. He had given more of character to the Judiciary of North Carlina than any one of the great Judges who have worn its ermine.

In the reports from 1854 to 1859 will be found the written words of his wisdom. Though dead, through these, he will speak to posterity in all ages to come, so long as liberty and letters have an abiding place in the land.

His loss falls not upon his family and kindred alone, but upon the community in which he lived, upon the whole State and humanity itself. We feel, and we have no doubt but all classes and parties feel, that one great link, connecting us with former times, is broken and that we have lost something, as it were, of the dignity and prestige of the Judiciary. "But little of the good and great can die." Chief Justice Ruffin lives and will forever live in the influence which his principles and opinions now exercise and will ever exercise upon the Judicial officers of his country. May we not hope that some older friend or some compeer; will give us a more extended notice of his life, character, and service rendered his country.

TELEGRAPH LINE.—At the Directors' meeting of the W. R. R. here last week a line of telegraph along this road from here to Jonesboro or Egypt was proposed. The matter is about this: If the Chatham R. R. or some other party will put a line from Raleigh to Jonesboro, the Western R. R. Co., will put up and keep in repair the part of the line from Fayetteville to Jonesboro, when wire and necessary material are furnished. We think such a line can be easily and chesply constructed. It would be of great benefit to our town, and would justify us in publishing a daily paper.—Fay. Eagle, Jan. 13th.

The most primitive postoffice in the world is to be found on the southern extremity of America. For some years past a barrel has been fastened by an iron chain to the outermost rock of the mountains overhanging the Straits of Magellan, opposite Terra del Fuego. It is opened by every ship which passes through the Straits, either to place letters in it or to take letters from it. The postoffice, therefore, takes care of itself, it is confided to the protection of seafarers, and there is no example of any breach of this trust having occurred. Each ship undertakes the voluntary transmission of the contents of the barrel, if their destination is within the limits of its voyage.

SIGNS OF EMPIRE.—A stable-keeper announces, in the columns of a contemporary, "splendid sets of horses and carriages to let, with drivers in livery," terms most reasonable. This is one of the straws that show the drift of things toward empire.—A driver does not give satisfaction to the speculators who have filled their pockets with the people's money, in that he is neat, clean and skillful. He must wear a badge of servitude, of inferiority, to gratify the pride of men to whom he is often inferior only in being more honest. When George William Curtis, fifteen years ago, exposed the absurdity of this practice, with crushing satire, in the "Potiphar Papers," it was hoped that the custom would die out. Instead of doing so it has spread.—Nat. Intelligencer.

SENATE.

MONDAY, Jan. 17, 1870.

The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock.

REPORT OF COMMITTEES.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

By Mr Stephens: To incorporate the Yanceyville and Danville Railroad Company; referred.

By Mr. Lindsay: To repeal an act to levy a special tax in the county of Rockingham; referred.

By Mr. Smith: To authorize the qualified voters of the counties of Caldwell and Watauga to locate a certain Turnpike Road running through said counties; referred.

By J. A. Hymas, col.: To require Railroad Presidents who have had control of certain bonds, to report to the General Assembly what disposition has been made of them, and to return all that are in their possession to the Treasury, and inflicting certain penalties upon them failing to do so; referred.

By Mr. Jones, of Columbus: To amend an act relating to salaries and fees. (This bill proposes to increase the salaries of the Justices of the Supreme Court each $500) Referred.

By Mr. Martindale: To incorporate the town of Robinsonville in the county of Martin. Referred.

By Mr. Respass: To authorize J. B Watson, Sheriff of Hyde to collect arears of taxes. Referred.

By Mr. Welker: To amend chapter 68 of the Revised Code. Referred.

By Mr. Winstead: (or the Code Commission) To repeal an act relating to fences in certain townships. Referred.

By Mr. Robbins: Resolution instructing the Attorney General to have the Constitutionality of the Railroad appropriations adjudicated. Lies over.

(These resolutions raise the point that the Constitution requires that the special tax to pay the interest on appropriations shall be sufficient for that purpose; and as the special tax actually levied in the Railroad bills is found inadequate in amount, the appropriation acts are unconstitutional.)

THIRD READING OF BILLS.

Bill to regulate the entries of vacant lands. Passed.

Bill to incorporate the North Carolina Homestead Association, was under consideration when the hour for the special order arrived. On motion the special order was postponed until to-morrow.

Mr. Sweet arose and said, Mr. President, I am informed that the distinguished and philanthopic Miss Dix, is now a guest of His Excellency, Gov. Holden. The successful efforts of this lady, through a long life devoted to the amelioration of the condition of the unfortunate, has endeared her to every intelligent person, and, especially, is she endeared to the people of North Carolina, as it was through her influence that the institution for the insane was erected. I move that a Committee of three be appointed by the Chair to wait upon Miss Dix, and invite her to a seat upon the floor of this Senate.

The motion was adopted, and the President designated Messrs. Sweet, Love and Lassiter, as the Committee.

Mr. Smith moved that upon the arrival of the distinguished lady to the Senate Chamber, that the usual business be suspended, and that the Senators receive her standing, which motion prevailed.

Subsequently the Committe returned, accompanied by Miss Dix, who was reclining on the arm of the venerable Senator from Granville.

The entire Senate arose upon her entrance and the President addressed her as follows:

Honored Lady, To you, as one of the greatest benefactors of the unfortunate of our race, and who has devoted a large portion of your valuable life to the amelioration of their unhappy condition, the Senate of North Carolina extend a cordial welcome to a seat within its bar, with the assurance that you will ever hold a permanent place within the hearts of each individual Senator.

On motion of Mr. Lassiter, the Senate took a recess for 10 minutes, in order to allow Senators an opportunity to obtain an introduction to the distinguished lady; at the expiration of the recess she retired accompanied by the Governor.

The consideration of the bill to incorporate the North Carolina Homestead Association was resumed, numerous amendments were offered, and a hearty discussion ensued, finally the bill as amended passed under a call of the previous question, by a vote of 28 to 13.

CALENDAR.

Bill to cede to the United States certain lands in the county of Craven, now used as a Federal Cemetery, passed its second reading.

Bill to establish the county of Dare, passed its second reading.

Bill for the redemption of real estate, was rejected.

The Clerk read a communication from the Hon. Samuel Phillips and the Hon. Thos. Bragg, accepting the appointment of the Senate on the Committee of investigation relating to the application, &c., of certain Railroad bonds.

The President stated as the Hon. Thos. Clingman was absent from the city, and there are great doubts as to his whereabouts and as an early report was desired, he would instruct the Clerk to strike the name of Mr. Clingman from the Committee and insert Gen. Rufus Barringer, of Charlotte, in its stead.

On motion the Senate adjourned until to morrow at 10½ o'clock.

NOTE.—Leave of absence was granted to Messrs. Graham, Burns, Jones, of Wake, and Welker.—4

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

MONDAY, Jan. 17th.

House called to order at the usual hour

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Barnett for the Committee on Corporations reported favorably upon the bill incorporating the Reversion Manufacturing Company. The bill took its place on the calendar.

RESOLUTIONS AND BILLS.

By Mr. Green: A bill to authorize the commissioners of Stanly, to levy a special tax. Lies over.

By Mr. Smith, of Martin: A bill to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors to minors. Referred.

By Mr. McCanless: A bill creating a lien in favor of physicians. Referred to a special committee of three.

By Mr. Boddie: A bill to authorize the Commissioners of Nash to levy a special tax. Referred.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The resolution authorizing the Auditor of Public Accounts to move for judgment against delinquent Sheriffs.

Mr. Vest advocated the adoption of the resolution in remarks of some length, upon the ground that the financial necessities of the State imperatively demanded such action upon the part of the General Assembly.

On motion of Mr. Seymour, the further consideration of the matter was postponed until to-morrow at half past 10 o'clock.

The hour set apart for the consideration of the second special order, having arrived it was taken up, to-wit:

The bill (war) to secure better protection of life and property.

The question recurred upon Mr. Malone's amendment striking out in section 1, the words "to declare such counties in a state of insurrection and," so the section might read as follows:

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact, That the Governor is hereby authorized and empowered whenever in his judgment the civil authorities in any county are unable to protect its citizens in the enjoyment of life and property to call into active service the militia of the State to such an extent as may become necessary to repress such insurrection.

Harris of Wake, col., occupied the floor for some time in support of the bill and in opposition to Mr. Malone's amendment.

He, in substance, repeated the arguments used when the bill first came up, together with the same charges of murder, rapine and ku kluxism. He charged that the reason why magistrates in Chatham, Orange, Jones and some other insurrectionary counties, did not take measures to protect colored and white Republicans was because they were intimidated and were afraid of being visited by armed bands at midnight, and being, what is called, ku kluxed.

He charged that the Conservative party and papers in the State palliated these outrages, and sought at all times, to stir and fire up the hearts of the white people against the colored people, and the SENTINEL, in particular, took advantage of every occasion to disseminate all sorts of falsehoods which might tend towards the disadvantage and persecution of the colored race.

He repeated the charge that the Magistrates and Grand Juries of Orange, Chatham, Alamance, Jones, Lenoir and some other counties, were either afraid to protect colored people and Republicans, or were in sympathy with the midnight marauders.

He next detailed various outrages committed in Chatham, and called upon Mr. Long, of that county, to substantiate what he (Harris) was saying, which he (Mr. L.) did not or could not do.

In relating an outrage committed in Forsyth, upon a colored man and how the Grand Jury refused to find true bills against the parties, when,

Mr. Vest, the Representative of that county, stated that the Jury could not get proof against all, but a part of them had been found over.

In relating an outrage upon a colored man in Johnston, he was interrupted by Mr. Pou, Representative of that county, who said that this was the first time he had heard of the affair. When detailing an outrage upon a colored man in Iredell county for merely teaching a colored school, (he Harris had been informed of this by a letter.) when,

Mr. Nicholson, of Iredell, arose and said that the school house where the outrage is alleged to have taken place, was on his way to his house, and he had never heard a word of the matter until the Representative of Wake, (Harris,) had made the charge this morning, and he (Mr. Nicholson) wished the name of his (Harris') informant.

Harris said that he did not feel at liberty to give the name until he had consulted him (the informant).

(Here Miss Dix entered the Hall attended by Mr. Moore, of Chowan, Mr. Downing, the Governor, and several members of the Senate.

Mr. Moore, in introducing the distinguished lady said: Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the House of Representatives, I have the honor of introducing to you Miss Dix, the eminent philanthropist. I need not inform you who she is, as her name is a household word wherever civilization and christain charity are known and respected.

Mr. Speaker Holden welcomed the lady in the following remarks:

Miss Dix, I have the honor in behalf of the House of Representatives, to tender you a seat upon the floor of this Hall. Among a people, where your name has been honored and will ever be honored because of your services in behalf of the unfortunate throughout the world, and especially because of your services to their own unfortunate fellow citizens,—I know that your stay will be pleasant; and that when you return, you will bear with you the benisons and the blessings of all the inhabitants of a great commonwealth.

On motion of Mr. Downing a recess of 10 minutes was taken and the members and officers of the House were introduced to the distinguished visitor by Mr. Speaker Holden.)

At the experation of the recess Harris resumed the floor and detailed various alleged outrages in Wake, Orange, Jones and Lenoir.

In conclusion he charged that in these insurrectionary counties where the colored and white people were nearly equally divided as to numbers, these outrages were perpetrated to intimidate the colored men in the coming elections.

Mr. Argo, next to the floor in opposition to the measure. He was astonished that gentlemen should lose sight, in their arguments, of the foundations upon which such a measure should be based.

He wanted to know what gentlemen meant by saying that certain counties were in a state of insurrection and rebellion.—Insurrection meant that there was in certain sections organized resistance to the law. Rebellion was a term of a more wide meaning and included a larger number engaged. Now what evidence has been produced here to show that such a state of things existed in any one County in the State. Were gentlemen going to rely upon ex parte statements of political partisans? Were gentlemen going to rely upon the testimony of detectives and spies? Yet all these charges made upon the integrity of the people, in certain counties were based the reports hired no spies and base political tricksters. Would gentlemen take the testimony of such a character in the face of the fact that not a scintilla of evidence has been produced from a single responsible source. If organized resistance and rebellion existed in any County what has become of the special militia law passed by this Legislature, giving any five magistrates power to call out the militia to enforce the laws whenever and wherever resisted.

Mr. Argo then proceeded to ventilate the charges of outrages committed in Orange county, and proved, by facts, that wherever hanging had been done, it had been done under circumstances and provocations of the most aggravated description.

Mr. Argo then read the petition of the citizens of Orange, protesting against the passage of the bill and denying the slanders perpetrated upon the fair name of the county.

For a long time it was universally known that not a letter could pass through the Post office at Chapel Hill without its contents being known or very accurately guessed at, and for a long time the matter was a profound secret until the mystery was cleared up by a indiscretion of one of Gov. Holden's paid detectives, one William Haskey, who, one day when drunk, declared that he was vested with more authority than any one else in the county, and, in proof of his assertion, pulled out a commission, signed by Gov. Holden, appointing him (Huskey,) a detective. He (Mr. Argo,) had every reason to know that all the information of outrages and resistances to the law, upon which the friends of this infamous measure base the necessity of this bill, is derived from just such sources. This was the character of the testimony by which some gentlemen pretended to justify the passage of a tyrannical and unconstitutional bill.

Will fair minded and honorable men give credence to such evidence, and lend their aid in oppressing their fellow citizens upon the more allegation of miserable and low detectives, who are afraid to let their names be known because they are well aware of the falseness of their assertions?

The Sheriff of Orange (he spoke for Orange as he supposed other gentlemen would speak for their county) would testify that he could alone and without aid execute any process of law.

If the charge be true that the civil officers in certain localities refuse to execute the law, was there not a provision whereby they could be removed and others who would, appointed? Why did not Gov. Holden, if he thinks these officers are in league with violators of the public peace, use the legal constitutional remedy for the evil, and not seek to use the influence of his position to secure the passage of an ancal lediluvian and illegal measure, clothing him with arbitrary and unheard of powers, and one which, instead of securing peace and order, would most likely produce discord and strife. Where is the utility of having enactments upon our statute books, if they are to be abrogated and set aside by such violent infringements upon the constitutional rights of the people?

Mr. A. in support of his argument in a legal point of view cited the provisions of the 11th section of the Bill of Rights, which provides that every man has the right to be informed of the accusation against him and confront the accusers and witnesses with other testimony, as a proof of the palpable violation of the Constitution by the 3rd section of the bill under discussion.

That section makes it obligatory upon the judge on application of the solicitor to remove trials to any designated point, no matter how distant.

If a poor man in Orange county was charged with a felony, he may, at the willof the Solicitor be carrried to a distant county, among strangers and be deprived of the benefit of the testimony of such witnesses as he might wish to produce and thereby grossly violating the provisions of the afore mentioned section of the Bill of Rights.

This removal of trial from county to county is designed as an advantage to the accused, when through his counsel, he makes affidavit to the court, that he believes justice will not be done him in that county and then the removal is made only to an adjacent county.

In regard to the operations of the 1st section of the bill, any one of the least penetration could see, at a glance, it would place despotic power in the hands of the Governor, and would result in the total abrogation of civil law. In proof of this Mr. A. read, from the Standard of Oct. 30, 1869, which shadowed forth the intention of passing such a bill as the present one, extracts from an editorial which he (Mr. Argo) could prove, by two responsible gentlemen, had been written by Governor Holden; that it was the design of the Governor and his friends to lodge in the hands of the Executive, supreme and arbitrary authority. Were gentlemen ready to set such a precedent? He was tired of ex parte statements and the grounds as and false assertions of political tools. He was an advocate for peace and tranquility, and would lend his aid to support to legally enacted and constitutional laws, no matter how distasteful they might be, and this was the disposition of the people of Orange as well, as he believed, of the whole people of the State.

Was the House prepared, by objecting to the organization of the militia of the State by a general law to say the majority of the white people were rebels and insurrectionists and not to be trusted? Was the House prepared to say, by voting for the 3rd section of this bill, that the majority of the people of any one county were a set of perjured rascals, and that the Conservative white people of the State was a set of rebels and unfit to be trusted.

Mr. A. continued for sometime in showing the constitutional objections which existed to the bill and the cruel injustice which it did an honest, peace loving and law abiding people. (Mr. A.'s speech will be published in full hereafter.)

Mr. Pou offered the following substitute for Mr. Malone's amendment in the shape of an addition to the 1st section:

Provided, That the military when called into service under this section, shall act in support of, and in strict subordination to the civil power.

Pending upon the debate, the House, on motion adjourned until this evening at half past 7 o'clock.

SAW MILLS.

I AM PREPARED TO PUT UP DOUBLE CIRcle Saw Mills in workman-like manner for those desiring them.

There are now 440 of these Mills in operation, and in no case have they failed to give entire satisfaction. One advantage of this Mill is, that the sawyer, without changing his position, gives the backward and forward motion to the carriage, with a single lever; and set the log at both ends at the same time, this is a saving of one hand to the mill. This is no humbug. I am responsible for what I say. My residence is 20 miles South of Raleigh, on Neal's Creek. For further particulars address me at Raleigh, N. C.

P. J. WRAY.

I will be at Lynn Adams' Store on the 2nd to the 5th of February, where persons desiring to see me will please call.

READ THE FOLLOWING.

Mr. P. J. Wray: Dear Sir:—I am much pleased with my double Circular Saw Mill, built by you. I can cut a line 14 inches deep, 20 feet long, in 45 seconds, with my 12 feet overshot wheel. We have to-day cut 3,000 feet weather-boarding, flooring, and inch board, in eight hours.

By last night's dispatches, Gold was quoted at 21¼; 62s. 15½; Cotton opened steady and closed weak—sales 3800 bales at 25½.

NEW ADS.—Furniture at cost by A. W. Fraps—a fine chance for those wishing to purchase in that line.

One of the most valuable business sites in Raleigh at public sale—the vacant lot at corner Market Square and Fayetteville street.

SENATE, SATURDAY NIGHT.—The proceedings of this body on Saturday night, were of not sufficient importance to require reporting.

COURT OF OYER AND TERMINER.—Judge Watts opened a Court of Oyer and Terminer here yesterday, appointed for the trial of cases pending on the State docket.—The Grand Jury was drawn and charged, after which the Court adjourned, in respect to the late Chief Justice, Hon. Thomas Ruffin.

There was a meeting of the members of the Bar, at the Supreme Court Room, the proceedings of which will be given to-morrow.

THE JAIL.—We are requested by Sheriff Lee to say, that while he admits the jail under his charge is not in the condition it should be, that it has been, for some time, impossible to keep it any better, on account of the crowds of convicts lodged there daily, or nightly, preparatory to their being taken to the Penitentiary.

PAMPHLETS &C. RECEIVED.—The AMERICAN BEE JOURNAL, published at Washington, D. C., by Samuel Wagner, Monthly, containing valuable information for those engaged in Bee raising. We could not find the subscription price of the publication—suppose, however, it is about $1,50 per annum.

THE NEW ERA, the colored American National Journal, Weekly, published at Washington D. C., at $2,50 a year.

DON'T YOU BELIEVE IT.—The Radicals of Weldon petition the Legislature to set aside the municipal election in that town, on the ground that proper notice of the election was not given. We learn from the Weldon News that the statement is untrue; that Sheriff Reid stuck up the advertisements ten days before the election, and handed, also, a notice to the News, which was inserted in two issues of that paper before the day of election. The fact is, the law appointing the first Monday in January for municipal elections, is full notice to voters. But notice was given, as can be fully established, and the only reason for seeking Legislative interference is, that they are dissatisfied with the result of the election, and want another trial.

THE WARRENTON GAZETTE is the name of a new candidate for public favor, published at Warrenton in this State, by Charles W. Sprull, Esq., the first number of which appeared on the 13th inst. It is a large and well printed paper, and the matter varied and interesting.

A NEW CANDIDATE FOR PUBLIC FAVOR.—From a memorial before us, asking the General Assembly to incorporate the "Farmers and Mechanics Life Assurance Association," we are informed by those having the same in charge, that it is the purpose of the Company, when chartered, to make the practice of Life Insurance common, and to extend its benefits to all classes. We can see no earthly reason why this should not be done, and those gentlemen who will inaugurate a system, which will offer insurance to the families of limited means, deserve the thanks of the entire community.

We can say that the corporators are amongst our most energetic and reliable working and business men in the community.

HUNG.—Lewis Hines, negro, for the crime of rape, was hung in Tarboro' on Friday last. He made no confession or denial of his crime.

At a regular meeting of the Hesperian Literary Society the following resolutions were unanimously adopted.

WHEREAS, It hath pleased the Allwise Creator to remove from our midst our brother and schoolmate, Alexander A. Gray, a member of the Junior Class, who has ever been a beloved member of our Society, and who died on the 7th instant at his father's residence, in Randolph county, we deem it fit to give expression to the feelings with which we are inspired by this sad event; Therefore,

Resolved, That while we bow in humble submission to "Him who doeth all things well," we deeply lament the loss of one, called away when almost ready to enter the broad arena of life with bright prospects and flattering hopes of a long career of usefulness.

Resolved, That we have received with profound sorrow, the intelligence of the death of our esteemed and worthy comrade, and that we tender our most sincere condolence, and our deepest and liveliest sympathy to the bereaved family.

Resolved, That we will long cherish his memory, as a kind, genial and estimable fellow-student, and that we will wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days

DIED,

On Tuesday the 11th of January 1870, at his residence in Orange county, two miles East of Hillsboro' CAPT. JOHN BERRY, aged seventy-two years. Captain BERRY was a native of Hillsboro' and spent his whole life, within this vicinity as his place of residence. He commenced his career with but few advantages, save those afforded by our free institutions and the conditions of the society in which his lot was cast. Apprenticed in early youth to the trade of a Bricklayer, he was found at his majority a master in his art, and of a character for morality, sobriety, industry and energy, which was at once a passport to success in his business to independence in fortune and to the respect and confidence of his fellow citizens. Of no man could it be more truly asserted that he was the artificer of his own fortune. Improving the hours snatched from labor, he made himself acquainted with the principles of science applicable to his calling, and as an architect and draughtsman had few superiors among those in this State at least who have been known as educated and professional architects. The edifices at Wake Forest College, the Masonic College at Oxford, the Library building at the University, the Court House of Orange, and of several other counties in the State, beside many other buildings public and private, of taste and elegance, which will occur to the remembrance of our readers, are among the monuments of his energy and skill, and many among them, of his taste and design.

To his professional knowledge he found time, notwithstanding his habitual and diligent occupation, to add a fund of general information, the fruit of much reading and study, in ancient and modern history, and especially in the history and politics of his own country. As a consequence of this, and of his identification with the people of his native county in all their interests, he was repeatedly called to stations of honor and responsibility. Elector of President and Vice-President of the United States, State Senator, member of the Convention of 1861, and of both branches of the Legislature since that time, until placed in a state of exclusion by an amendment to the Constitution of the United states. In all these public trusts, he evinced the same diligence and attentiveness which governed his private business, a modest integrity and firmness in its maintenance, which inspired universal respect, and an intelligent comprehension of the interest and welfare of the country which rendered him an useful adviser of the people and a safe depository of the powers confided to him. Having wrestled with poverty, he knew by experience how hardly honest toil accumulates its gains, he favored no onerous schemes of taxation; though he advocated a system of finance equal to a just liberal administration; accustomed to the adoption of means to ends, and to count the cost before embarking in an enterprise, he supported no measures of extravagance and folly, entailing public debt and ruining public credit. But expecting to meet his constituents face to face, and to give an account of his stewardship over their affairs, and to feel in his own concerns, any burthens laid on them, he dealt with matters of public policy upon the same principles of prudence and probity, which as a sensible man, he had applied to his own. Blessed with the means of providing for a numerous family in comfort, notwithstanding the losses entailed by the war he was open hearted in his charity to the poor, and liberal in all business arrangements with those in embarrassment and distress. How these tokens of kindness were appreciated, and how he was esteemed as a citizen, neighbor and friend in the community in which he had so long resided, was manifested by the general expression of regret at his demise and the solemn and lengthened procession of those from town and country, and of both complexions who accompanied his remains to their last repose in his family cemetery a joining the public grave yard in Hillsboro.

Though he had passed the age allotted for active labor, he had suffered no decline in his energies of body or mind, and was accustomed to handle the implements of the trade he had been taught, till the attack of illness which ended in his death. Indeed to exposure and over exertion in a new and extensive building he was erecting, and which it was hoped was but the pioneer of other improvements in his native town, is attributed the sad event we have to record. Patient in suffering, calm and resigned to his fate, in the bosom of the family he had reared with truly parental care and affection, he passed away in quietness and peace.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

The undersigned having thoroughly investigated the causes and cure of drunkenness produced by alcholic drinks, by the aid of medical science, and having demonstrated by practice upon individual cases to his entire satisfaction and that of others, that the propensity to alcholic drinks is a disease, and that it is curable, offers his services to that unfortunate class of his fellow-citizens.

He will, for the present, remain in this city a few days, and letters addressed to him through the Post-office, will be promptly attended to. The utmost privacy will be observed, and parties will indicate where he can communicate with them. He has no antidote—administers no nostrum which can be put up in packages, but treats the disease by personal investigation and prescriptions. He has treated a number of cases successfully, and has not to his knowledge failed in any case, where his advice and remedies have been observed. He makes no charge if he fails to cure.

PHOSPHATIC FISH GUANO.

PRICE $40 PER TON OF 2,000 LBS. AT NORFOLK VA.

Manufactured at Norfolk Virginia

This article is much superior to the Peruvian Guano as a fertilizer. It contains a much larger percentage of bone phosphate and Soda, and nearly as much Ammonia, its effects upon the land will be seen for years.

The following extracts from certificates received from those who used it last year upon Cotton will have the effect to remove the prejudice produced by the use of manufactured fertilizers, and give confidence in this home made article.

R. Lederman, Esq., of Bertie county N. C., writes: "I have used your Phosphate Fish Guano in equal quantities side by side with Peruvian Guano and found the product much in favor of your article, the weed was larger, Cotton heavier and the plant kept green through the dry Summer."

J. J. Burton of same State, writes to the same import. Our Circular for January 1870, contains these and other certificates in full.

WE PROPOSE TO RENEW THE PUBLICation of the "PRIMITIVE BAPTIST" upon the following terms, commencing, if we shall receive sufficient encouragement, in the month of January, 1870:

The "Primitive Baptist" will be published semi-monthly on every Thursday before the second and fourth Sundays in each month, twenty-four numbers constituting a volume—for One Dollar and Fifty Cents in greenbacks, or One Dollar in gold, payable, in all cases, in advance.

All moneys sent to us, properly mailed, are at our risk.

No Restrictions as to Residence and Travel in the United States.

RATES LOWER THAN ANY OTHER COMPANY THAT PAYS DIVIDENDS TO POLICY-HOLDERS.

LOSSES PAID PROMPTLY IN CASH.

LIST OF LOSSES ACTUALLY PAID BY THE ÆTNA LIFE INS. CO., AT THE BRANCH OFFICE, IN RALEIGH, BY THE HANDS OF W. H. CROW, GENERAL MANAGER OF THE STATE AND PART OF VA.

And $5,000 ready to pay a loss of No. 34,161, so soon as the party authorized to receive the money appears.

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1868. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

KNICKERBOCKER,	$16,34
EQUITABLE,	17,44
NORTH AMERICA,	21,18
BROOKLYN,	21,09
UNIVERSAL,	27,24
JOHN HANCOCK,	18,27
THE NATIONAL,	63,48
THE ÆTNA,	13,41

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It issued more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 589 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed net assets summing up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13,337 new policies, more than any other Company, except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested net assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."
